An opportunity has arisen for a full-time teaching position at Bournes Green Infant School. We are seeking to appoint a committed and creative classroom teacher who is passionate about learning. You will have the ability to inspire, engage and motivate our pupils to do their very best. Our pupils are looking for an enthusiastic teacher with good pedagogical knowledge and subject knowledge who has high expectations and makes learning fun.

Bournes Green Infant is a two form entry school, part of the Southend East Community Academy Trust. We are a caring school with wonderful children who love to learn. Our staff members are extremely dedicated, friendly and supportive of each other. We can offer you the support of a committed team of staff and Governors as well as children who are well behaved and eager to learn.

Visits to the school are strongly encouraged and warmly welcomed. All visits will adhere to social distancing guidance.

For further information and to arrange a visit please contact the school office 01702 587099 or email Mrs Tina Gerard (School Office Team Leader) fhr@bournesgreen-inf.southend.sch.uk
