

VACANCY: PSYCHOLOGY TEACHER

Required for APRIL 2021

We are seeking an enthusiastic, knowledgeable and committed Teacher of Psychology to join our established Social Sciences Faculty.

We are seeking to appoint a full-time teacher who can make a valuable contribution to the school. The successful candidate will be able to deliver high quality lessons, ensuring that students achieve their full potential in the Sixth Form. They must be committed to raising standards by working with the Head of Faculty and Head of Subject to deliver, monitor and evaluate the teaching and learning of one of the school's most popular Sixth Form subjects. In addition, they must be willing to deliver PSHE lessons in KS3 and 4, following the programme developed by the faculty and to contribute to the development of the curriculum according to statutory guidelines.

We would welcome applications from qualified/experienced teachers and NQTs.

The school has a commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children
